Brand overview

A sustainable skincare brand offering plant-based, refillable products for sensitive skin.

Offer

Cleansers, serums, moisturisers, refill packs, and ingredient education.

Audience

Eco-conscious consumers aged 25–40 who value transparency and design.

Brand personality

Calm, transparent, science-meets-nature.

Marketing challenge

The brand is entering a crowded market and needs stronger awareness, differentiation, and repeat purchase.

Digital opportunity

Use content, SEO, and social storytelling to build trust, explain ingredients, and encourage loyalty.

SUSTAINABLE

CONSCIOUS

EFFECTIVE

TRANSPARENT

Good for your skin. Good for the planet.

ByteBite

Fast meals for student life.

 FoodTech

 For-profit

Brand overview

A student-focused food brand offering affordable meal kits and practical recipe inspiration.

Offer

15-minute meal kits, low-cost subscriptions, grocery shortcuts, and student-friendly recipes.

Audience

University students and recent graduates living independently.

Brand personality

Friendly, practical, playful.

Marketing challenge

Students show strong first-time interest, but many do not return after the first order.

Digital opportunity

Use website content and social media to link convenience, budget, and lifestyle in a way that drives loyalty.

StayNest

Flexible stays with a local feel.

Travel & Hospitality

For-profit

Brand overview

A design-led short-stay brand for remote workers, couples, and weekend travellers.

Offer

Stylish apartments, flexible check-in, local guides, and direct booking perks.

Audience

Young professionals, digital nomads, and couples aged 24–40.

Brand personality

Modern, warm, effortless.

Marketing challenge

The brand relies too heavily on booking platforms and wants more direct bookings and audience ownership.

Digital opportunity

Use website content and social media to inspire travel planning, highlight local experiences, and strengthen direct relationships.

Mentoring potential. Expanding futures.

Education & Social Impact

Non-profit

Brand overview

A non-profit platform offering free mentoring and career workshops for underrepresented teenagers.

Offer

Online mentoring, skill workshops, volunteer networks, and school partnerships.

Audience

Teenagers aged 15–18, volunteer mentors, schools, and community partners.

Brand personality

Hopeful, empowering, inclusive.

Marketing challenge

The organisation needs more volunteer mentors and stronger awareness among schools and young people.

Digital opportunity

Use impact stories, community content, and social media to build trust and encourage participation.

*Real support.
Real people.

CycleCircle

Repair. Reuse. Ride together.

Community Sustainability

Non-profit

Brand overview

A community-based charity that donates bicycles, runs repair workshops, and teaches cycling skills.

Offer

Bike donations, repair events, cycling lessons, and local volunteering opportunities.

Audience

Families, students, commuters, volunteers, and local donors.

Brand personality

Grassroots, practical, positive.

Marketing challenge

The mission is compelling, but local awareness is limited and event participation is inconsistent.

Digital opportunity

Use local storytelling, event-led content, and social media to increase donations, volunteers, and community engagement.

PetPatch

Everyday wellness for happy pets.

Pet Care

For-profit

Brand overview

A pet wellness subscription brand combining monthly boxes with tele-vet support.

Offer

Preventive care boxes, pet supplements, digital advice, and flexible subscription plans.

Audience

Millennial pet owners with cats and dogs.

Brand personality

Caring, cheerful, expert.

Marketing challenge

Consumers like the idea, but many do not fully understand the value of preventive pet care or commit to a subscription.

Digital opportunity

Use educational blogs, user-generated content, and social media to build trust and explain the benefits.

 For-profit

Brand overview

An online marketplace selling handmade home decor from independent local makers.

Offer

Crafted textiles, ceramics, lighting, gift items, and maker-led collections.

Audience

Design-conscious shoppers aged 28–45 who value authenticity and craftsmanship.

Brand personality

Creative, authentic, crafted.

Brand personality

People love browsing the brand, but conversion from inspiration to purchase remains low.

Digital opportunity

Use content, styling ideas, and social commerce to turn browsing into confident buying.

Decorate consciously. Live beautifully.

GreenLoop Offices

Smarter workspaces, lower waste.

B2B Circular Economy

For-profit

Brand overview

A B2B brand providing refurbished office furniture and sustainable workspace design for SMEs.

Offer

Refurbished desks and chairs, workspace planning, fit-out advice, and sustainability reporting support.

Audience

Start-ups, small businesses, and office managers.

Brand personality

Smart, responsible, professional.

Marketing challenge

The business needs more qualified B2B leads and a clearer value message beyond simply being green.

Digital opportunity

Use the website and social channels to communicate cost savings, sustainability benefits, and transformation case stories.

Extend product life

Lower total cost

Reduce environmental impact

Improve business performance

Support that feels safe, visible, and real.

Wellbeing & Student Support

Non-profit

Brand overview

A non-profit initiative offering peer support, workshops, and wellbeing resources for international students.

Offer

Peer circles, online resources, guided workshops, and campus partnerships.

Audience

International university students and university support partners.

Brand personality

Supportive, reassuring, culturally sensitive.

Marketing challenge

Many students could benefit from the service, but awareness, trust, and ongoing engagement are low.

Digital opportunity

Use community-first content and sensitive social storytelling to increase reach, trust, and participation.

Building a kinder campus culture, together.

CLARA

Find your flow

Brand overview

An electrolyte-enhanced water brand for active, busy people who want everyday hydration without sugary sports-drink branding.

RECOVER.

FOCUS.

PERSIST.

KEEP MOVING.

Offer

Still and sparkling electrolyte waters, low-sugar flavours, workplace packs, gym partnerships, and recovery-focused multi-packs.

Audience

Gym-goers, commuters, students, runners, wellness consumers, and busy professionals.

Brand personality

Clear, calm, efficient, fresh, resilient.

Marketing challenge

Clara faces reputational pressure after one of its key ingredient suppliers is caught in a sourcing controversy. Although the product itself is not directly unsafe, the brand is now dealing with public concern, criticism by association, and questions about accountability.

Digital opportunity

Use social and community management to address stakeholder concerns and support a longer-term shift toward trust, transparency, and responsible sourcing.

Crumb & Verse

Where stories rise.

Brand overview

A neighbourhood bakery serving handmade bread, pastries, and coffee by day, with intimate poetry nights, readings, and creative gatherings in the evenings.

Offer

Sourdough, pastries, seasonal bakes, coffee, poetry nights, open mics, writing workshops, zines, and local artist collaborations.

Audience

Local residents, students, writers, creatives, café-goers, book lovers, and independent food fans.

Brand personality

Warm, thoughtful, intimate, artistic, community-led.

Marketing challenge

The concept could be misunderstood as either 'just a bakery' or 'too artsy and niche.' Crumb & Verse needs to communicate that it is both approachable and distinctive, while giving people a reason to return beyond the food.

Digital opportunity

Build a digital presence that connects everyday bakery culture with a distinctive sense of local creativity and community participation.

Bread.

Coffee.

Poetry.

DR. MIRA SATO

BRAND OVERVIEW

A science fiction author launching a cinematic new space opera about ancient vampiric empires, interstellar politics, forbidden lineages, and rebellion across the stars.

OFFER

The upcoming novel, author interviews, lore reveals, signed editions, convention appearances, newsletter exclusives, and cinematic book trailers.

AUDIENCE

Science fiction readers, fantasy fans, space opera audiences, vampire fiction fans, BookTok, and convention communities.

BRAND PERSONALITY

Epic, mysterious, intelligent, cinematic, bold.

WORLDS. IDEAS.
BLOODLINES. REBELLION.

MARKETING CHALLENGE

The campaign must balance two identities: selling Dr. Mira Sato as a credible, distinctive literary figure while also building anticipation for The Starless Dominion.

DIGITAL OPPORTUNITY

Build a digital campaign that grows anticipation for the novel while establishing the author as a distinctive new voice in contemporary science fiction.

Tinker™

Little hands. Big ideas.

Brand overview

A playful STEM toy brand designed to help children learn engineering, robotics, and problem-solving through modular building kits, simple motors, sensors, and app-supported controls.

Offer

Robot kits, motors, sensors, expansion packs, classroom bundles, challenge cards, parent guides, and app-based building missions.

Audience

Children aged 6-12, parents, schools, STEM clubs, homeschool families, and gift buyers.

Brand personality

Inventive, playful, smart, encouraging, practical.

Marketing challenge

Parents may see robotics toys as expensive, overly technical, or more educational than fun. The brand needs to show that Tinker combines imaginative play with meaningful STEM learning.

Digital opportunity

Create a digital strategy that makes robotics feel accessible, exciting, and achievable for both children and the adults buying for them.

Build it.

Code it.

Move it.

Imagine it.

Build. Code. Play. Learn.

WARWICK STUDENT THEATRE

"From Warwick to the world."

Brand overview

A campus theatre society that gives students the chance to perform, direct, write, produce, design, and experience live theatre across a diverse annual programme.

Perform.

Direct.

Write.

Produce.

Design.

Experience.

Offer

Classic plays, student-written productions, open auditions, backstage roles, workshops, socials, and festival-style showcases.

Audience

Warwick students, local theatre audiences, alumni, regional arts communities, theatre reviewers, other university theatre societies, and national arts/culture audiences.

Brand personality

Creative, expressive, welcoming, ambitious, collaborative.

Marketing challenge

Warwick Student Theatre is already active locally, but now wants to grow its reputation beyond campus and the surrounding area. The challenge is to build wider awareness of the quality, ambition, and distinctiveness of its work among audiences who may never attend in person.

Digital opportunity

Develop a digital presence that translates the energy and quality of live student theatre to audiences beyond Warwick.
